El Rancho Charter School has historically provided a robust arts program. The Proposition 28 – Arts and Music in Schools has provided us with funding to expand those departments and offer more opportunities for students to learn, participate, and enjoy the arts in various areas such as dance, instrumental music, visual arts and media arts. We have added additional teacher sections in all those areas. We also have added classified staff to support these classes. We are meeting the 80% of funds to be expended to provide arts educational program instruction. In adding these sections, we needed to increase supplies to support projects and encourage creativity.
